

the Lucky December listings

Seattle

A Northwest designer holiday market, plus special deals for Lucky readers. By Kathy Schultz

the best places

local indie chains

Our favorite Seattle mini-franchises prove that if one spot is good, two (or three) are even better.

Shoefly

2030 First Ave., 206-729-7463; 2042 Bellevue Sq., Bellevue, 425-646-1112. The newish Belltown boutique has a similar label roster to the Bellevue original but also stocks fresh names like Butter and Cochina. I laid the amazing sales rack in the back for huge discounts.

Watson Kennedy

86 Pine St., 206-443-6281; 1022 First Ave., 206-652-8350; 10032 Main St., Bellevue, 425-467-1142. This fail-safe trio of gift and decor shops is devoted to Eurocentric candles, linens, vintage finds, and jewelry by local designer River Song.

Ian

501 N. 36th St., 206-322-7380; 1919 Second Ave., 206-441-4055. Fremont and Belltown locals head to this streetwear resource for edgy pieces from Daryl K. Nice Collective, and Ksubi.

Allusia

7225 Greenwood Ave. N., 206-784-5762; 921 SW 152nd St., Burien, 206-244-

SHOEFLY

6341. Along with her top-notch selection of hostess gifts and modern home furnishings, owner Jimi Lou Steamberg also carries a reliable mix of vintage jewelry and handbags.

Vain

5401 Ballard Ave. NW, 206-706-2767; 2018 First Ave., 206-441-3441. This hip Belltown salon recently spun off a smaller location on a sunny corner in Ballard. Both have covetable upscale products (Pureology, Deva Curl, Kasco-Murphy) and an expansive menu of hair services.
